

11/2/16 – The Amber Room Colonnade

If you have not attended an event at The Amber Room, most Danburians will still likely be familiar with the premier venue on 1 Stacey Road. Whether it be a wedding, a corporate gathering or even trade shows, The Amber Room's versatile and prestigious event planning can do it all.

Located on twenty-six acres, The Amber Room Colonnade has stood as a contemporary landmark in Danbury since 1979. Come for a tour of the gardens and enjoy the beautiful scenery that has shined as the backdrop of wedding albums for decades.

There are a few characteristics you will find at any event hosted at The Amber Room, starting with the award-winning cuisine made on-site by their superb chef. And in conjunction with the menu, The Amber Room makes sure that each event is personalized to the style of the host meaning the food and décor are tailored to each individual event.

Gather up to 650 guests in the 10,000 square foot grand ballroom, or rent half of the ballroom for a smaller event, each fully equipped with a bar, foyer and veranda. You can celebrate just about anything at The Amber Room Colonnade. If you're looking to plan an event, stop by for a food tasting or take a tour!

Or check them out online at www.theamberroom.net

